Mr Warren's Activity Update!

As lockdown continues, I have been keeping myself active and trying my best to stay healthy. Fresh air and exercise have helped me to stay positive and keep smiling!

Me, Laura and Desi went to the beach at Bamburgh one day and it was beautiful! The sunshine was lovely ... I even got a sun tan! Desi enjoyed playing in the sea to cool down ... that's why he looks like a scruffy mess in the photo!

I hope you are all feeling ok and that you are taking care of yourselves, your families and your friends at such a difficult time. I can't wait to see you all again soon.

Remember to send in your pictures to the Facebook page of anything that you have been doing at home!
